Part I
Summary Annual Report for The Hanford Employee Welfare Trust

This is a summary of the annual report of the Hanford Employee Welfare Trust, or “HEWT,” EIN 91-2017261, Plan #550, a Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangement (MEWA), for the Plan Year ending December 31, 2009.¹ The annual report has been filed with the Employee Benefits Security Administration, as required under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, “ERISA.”

Self-Insured Benefits

The HEWT has committed itself to pay all claims incurred under the terms of each of the following plans:

- long-term disability coverage provided by CIGNA
- medical coverage provided by United Health Care
- vision coverage provided by Spectera
- behavioral health care coverage provided by United Health Care
- prescription drug coverage provided by Express Scripts
- dental coverage provided by Washington Dental

Insured Benefits

The HEWT has contracts with:

- CIGNA to pay all life, short-term disability and accidental death and dismemberment insurance claims incurred under the terms of the plan
- Group Health Northwest to pay certain medical and vision claims incurred under the terms of the plan
- Willamette Dental to pay certain dental claims incurred under the terms of the plan

The premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2009 were $51,338,664 to Group Health, $2,403,690 to Willamette Dental, and $7,240,379 to CIGNA. The total premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2009 were $60,982,773.

Because these are “experience-rated” contracts, the premium costs are affected by, among other things, the number and size of claims. Of the total insurance premiums paid for the plan year ending December 31, 2009, the premiums paid under such “experience-rated” contracts were $60,982,773 and the total of all benefit claims paid under these “experience-rated” contracts during the plan year was $45,605,896.

Basic Financial Statement

The value of plan assets held by the HEWT, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $968 as of December 31, 2009, compared to $81,753 as of January 1, 2009. During the plan year the plan experienced a decrease in its net assets of $(80,785). This decrease includes unrealized appreciation and depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan’s assets at the end of the year and the value of the assets at the beginning of the year or the cost of assets acquired during the year. During the plan year, the plan had total income of $112,938,259 including employer contributions of $86,504,526 and employee contributions of $26,433,733. Plan expenses were $113,019,044. These expenses included $3,531,863 in administrative expenses and $109,487,181 in benefits paid to participants and beneficiaries.

Part II Summary Annual Report for the Hanford Operations and Engineering Investment Plan

This is a summary of the annual report for the Hanford Operations and Engineering Investment Plan, EIN 90-0501441, Plan #002, for the period January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009.² The annual report has been filed with the Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, as required under ERISA.

Basic Financial Statement

Benefits under the plan are provided through a trust. Plan expenses were $36,299,930. These expenses included $274,397 in administrative expenses and $35,889,398 in benefits paid to participants and beneficiaries. A total of 5,297 persons were participants in or beneficiaries of the plan at the end of the plan year, although not all of these persons had yet earned the right to receive benefits.

The value of plan assets, after subtracting liabilities of the plan, was $632,991,738 as of December 31, 2009, compared to $514,007,687 as of January 1, 2009. During the plan year the plan experienced an increase in its net assets of $118,984,051. This increase includes unrealized appreciation or depreciation in the value of plan assets; that is, the difference between the value of the plan’s assets at the end of the year and the value of the assets at the beginning of the year, or the cost of assets acquired during the year. The plan had total income of $155,283,981 including employer contributions of $11,346,214, employee contributions of $26,936,127, gains of $21,524 from the sale of assets and gains from investments of $116,980,116.

Part III
