MSA RECOGNIZED BY SECRETARY OF STATE FOR COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

RICHLAND, Wash. – Hanford contractor Mission Support Alliance (MSA) was recently recognized by Washington Secretary of State Kim Wyman as part of the 2017 Corporations for Communities Award. Corporations for Communities honors extraordinary Washington businesses that give their best efforts in helping their communities.

As the recipient of an Honorable Mention award, MSA was recognized for its corporate giving and community outreach program, MSA Cares, as well as the outstanding efforts by employees to raise money for and donate volunteer time to non-profit organizations in our community.

Secretary Wyman noted, “Washington is blessed to have so many caring companies that give back to their communities in a variety of ways. This awards program is a great way to recognize companies that go above and beyond to make a difference.”

In recent years, MSA has more than doubled the number of employees who participate in volunteer activities. President Bob Wilkinson is proud of the impact MSA continues to make, “As individuals and as a company, MSA makes a positive difference in the Tri-Cities. We value the effort our employees and their families personally invest in giving back. We’re proud to accept this honorable mention from Secretary Wyman and look forward to continuing to help the community.”
